There are lots of options for getting around in Odense.

Sometimes the best way is by car; other times by bicycle, public transport or simply on foot.

This brochure presents a variety of information and offers that you may find helpful in getting from A to B.
Odense is undergoing rapid transformation. Roads and urban spaces are changing, and new places and spaces are being developed. This means you will sometimes have to walk, cycle or drive using a different route, and you may have to park in places you are less familiar with.

The Odense Rundt app and website help you find your way around the city and keep you informed about what Odense has to offer while the modification work is in progress. Whether you are walking, riding your bike or driving a car, Odense Rundt will recommend a suitable route for you. The route will always be up to date and will guide you past temporarily closed roads and one-way streets.

Odense Rundt also guides you to the nearest available parking spaces, playgrounds, bike tyre pumps, museums, green areas, and much more.

Odense is the City of Cyclists. Cycling has been a priority for many years, and this has made Odense one of Denmark’s leading cycling cities. So there is every reason to go by bike when exploring the city. Cycling is a cheap and healthy mode of transport, and you will reach your destination quickly. Odense has more than 560 km of cycle paths.

Getting around Odense by bike

When using Odense Rundt, you will be shown various cycling routes depending on what you want to experience during your trip. Furthermore, you can find information about where to pump up your tyres, where to park your bike, and suggested excursions.
City bikes in Odense

Across the city, city bikes are available for general use. You can borrow a bike for up to 24 hours without registration; all you need is your mobile phone. The Odense Rundt app shows you where city bikes are available, and you can find out more about how to borrow a bike.

Commuter bikes

If you commute to Odense, you can rent a bike with its own bike stand and lock. You will have to pay the rental with your debit card upon registration.

The commuter bikes are located at the railway station, Odense Banegård Center, and at two local railway stations along the line to Svendborg. Odense Rundt shows you where commuter bikes are available and gives you links to prices, etc.
E-bikes

If the distance from your home to work, university, etc., is too far for you to ride a bike, an e-bike may be the answer. With an e-bike, you can enjoy longer distances, reach your destinations faster, and still benefit from fresh air and rosy cheeks, but without getting out of breath!

Borrow a cargo bike or an e-bike

Would you like to try a cargo bike or an e-bike in Odense? You can borrow one for up to four days – free of charge. The bikes are available at various bicycle shops around the city. Use Odense Rundt to get an overview of the different places, and to book a bike, visit www.cyklisternesby.dk
Car

If you prefer to use your own car, Odense Rundt offers an overview of the current roadworks, and guides you past closed roads and one-way streets. Odense Rundt can also point you towards the nearest available parking spaces in the inner city, and at the harbour. It also informs you of charges, etc.

Electric car

If you drive an electric car, Odense Rundt can help you get an overview of the charging stations.
Carsharing

Within Odense, LetsGo is the main provider of carsharing. The cars are available at various locations – Odense Rundt will show you where they are.

Additionally, GoMore and Snappcar also rent out private cars.

Carpooling

Get to know other people while saving money. Carpooling is a great option if you know other people who commute to work, university, etc. Check out www.gomore.dk or www.pendlernet.dk, and see if someone is going the same way as you.
Disabled parking

Odense Rundt also provides an overview of parking spaces for disabled people in the inner city as well as at the harbour.

With your disabled parking permit visibly displayed on the windscreen, you can always park free of charge in the municipal parking spaces where payment is normally required.

This means that, if the disabled parking spaces are occupied, you can park free of charge in the remaining parking spaces as well.

Remember to set the time on your parking disc, if you park in an area with time limits!

In addition, Odense Rundt can guide you to toilet facilities for disabled people, vending machines with synthesised speech and much more.
Park + Bike

Do you sometimes wish you lived closer to work, so you could ride your bike? Or perhaps just ride it some of the way? Then Park + Bike is for you.

There are four Park + Bike stations in Odense: Middelfartvej at the motorway junction, on the corner of Munkebjergvej and Østerbæksvej, on the corner of Hjallesevej and Munkerisvej, and at Agerhatten near Ørbækvej.

The stations at Munkebjergvej and Hjallesevej are equipped with bike tyre pumps, a small workshop and lockers for storing spare shoes, rainwear, etc.
If you want to be a part of Park + Bike you need to make a personal visit to Citizen Service at Borgernes Hus, Østre Stationsvej 15, 5000 Odense C. You will then be issued with a chip for your selected Park + Bike station.

Once you have received the chip, you are ready to use the station, and we are ready to take care of your bike. You will have to pay a deposit of DKK 100 for the chip. Your chip will be deactivated if not used for three months.

When travelling by bus in Odense, you will travel with FynBus. Visit www.fynbus.dk/find-din-rejse or www.rejseplanen.dk to view timetable information.

A Rejsekort (travel card) makes it easy for you to get around in Odense and the rest of Funen by bus. There are different types of Rejsekort, and one of them will certainly meet your needs. Read more about the different types of Rejsekort at www.rejsekort.dk

If you want to get around in the inner city or the harbour area, take the free “city- og havnebus”. You can check the bus timetable at www.fynbus.dk/find-din-rejse. You can also follow FynBus on Facebook to instantly receive the latest news about changes, etc.
The train is a great option when travelling long distances. But did you know that you can take the train within the municipality? The regional train to Svendborg stops at Odense University Hospital (OUH), Fruens Bøge, and Hjallese. The Rejsekort can be used when travelling by train.

Buy tickets with your phone
